

ROBERT S. ESPOSITO, ESQUIRE

Curriculum Vitae

Robert S. Esposito graduated magna cum laude from Temple University School of Law, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania earning his J.D. degree in May, 1977. He has earned numerous awards and recognition for achievements while at Temple Law School which include: academic dean's list for all three years;

highest grade/best examination in the following courses: Federal Courts & Jurisdiction, Sales & Sales

Financing, Negotiable Instruments, Fiduciary Taxation; tied for highest grade/best examination in Contract Remedies; and recipient of the American Jurisprudence Award in Negotiable Instruments.

His rank in the May, 1977 graduating class placed him in the top number 7 of 297 total graduates.

From January, 1985 through the present, Mr. Esposito has been actively engaged in the private practice of law throughout the City of Philadelphia and its surrounding counties. His law practice has been concentrated on: probate, trust, and estate law; real estate law; corporate/commercial law; State and Federal income taxation; and similar fields of law. He has substantial experience in basic and advanced estate planning utilizing wills, testamentary trusts, living trusts, powers of attorney and related legal documents. He is proficient in Federal estate tax calculation, consultation and planning; and in estate and trust administration, Orphans' Court proceedings, and related legal services. Mr. Esposito was formerly a member of the adjunct faculty at Manor College in Jenkintown, Pennsylvania from 1989 through 2001 and has given courses in Trusts And Estates in the Fall Term in each of these years. He has also given courses in Introduction to the Legal System, Law Office Management and Real Estate Law. During this time, he also taught the real estate fundamentals course through other educational institutions to candidates studying for the Pennsylvania real estate license examination. He is a featured biographee in Who's Who Among America's Teachers. Mr. Esposito is admitted in good standing to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania; the United States District Court; the United States Third Circuit Court of Appeals; United States Bankruptcy Court; and the Tax Court of the United States. He is a member in good standing of the Pennsylvania and has been a featured biography in Who's Who in American Law.

Contact Information:

Robert S. Esposito Law Office
1515 DeKalb Pike, Suite 201
Blue Bell, Pennsylvania 19422-3367
Tele: 610-277-5788 || Fax: 610-277-8556
RSE@AttorneyEsposito.com